Appreciates receiving this report from the hon Mabuyakhulu.

Therefore resolves as follows:

Regarding the suggestion that this matter be tabled before the House of Traditional Leaders, this is indeed a legislative imperative. However, the nation should not be misled with statements that seek to suggest that there was no consultation on this matter and that it is an attempt to unsettle Prince Buthelezi; and

If giving Prince Buthelezi what he asked for is construed as an attempt to unsettle him, it should be noted that this came about as a result of a letter which he himself had written.]

9.4 Dr M J Mthethwa, IFP, to move:

This House notes:

That power cuts can lead to the spreading of diseases;

To call on the government of the day to take further steps to deal with this electricity tragedy.

To express its disdain, and to reiterate that every attack on a farmer is an attack on the entire nation, as there will be no nation without food; and

To express the hope that the perpetrators will be brought to book.

[This House notes:

The finger pointing exchanges between the ANC and the IFP during debates in this House – something that has become a norm in this House – create confusion among communities who are waiting to hear about government service delivery plans that can change their lives;

That these exchanges have nothing to do with development programmes, but have everything to do with political point scoring and pride, and

That these exchanges encourage unsavoury words and speeches.

Therefore resolves as follows:

To urge all members to speak in a constructive manner, and focus more on constructive criticism; and

To call on these two political parties to take a cue from the other political parties in this House, and to focus in their debates on issues that can help this province and its people achieve a better life.]

[This House notes:

That the interference by Mary de Haas on matters of this House is an indication that she is a lackey of the ruling party.

Therefore resolves to:

Warn Mrs Mary de Haas that a person cannot use a case to judge another case, and that a person is innocent until found guilty by a court of law.]

9.9 Mrs L Rajkumar, IFP, to move:

That, despite government's investments in securing the welfare of children, increasing numbers of children are subjected to a notorious life on the streets by their parents and guardians, i.e. begging and child labour; and

That infants and toddlers are being dragged around unceremoniously across street intersections by older children who are supposed to be in school.

Therefore resolves:

To request the Department of Welfare and the police to function as an integral unit to enforce stronger policies to eradicate the exploitation of children by their parents for financial gain.
